

SERIOUS ACCIDENT TO MICANOPY MAN

D. W. Tompkins Fell Thirteen Feet and Sustained Injuries.

UNCONSCIOUS FOR SOME TIME

While Securing Feed for His Stock Stepped Backward into Opening and Fell to the Floor Below—His Actual Condition Not Ascertained.

A telephone message was received from Micanopy about 8 o'clock Thursday night so the effect that D. W. Tompkins, a livery man of that town, fell through an opening in the loft of his stable, a distance of about thirteen feet, and struck the floor on his side, sustaining a painful and probably serious injury. He was picked up in an unconscious condition, and remained so for some time. No particulars were learned, and the real extent of his injuries cannot be told.

Mr. Tompkins is one of Micanopy's most progressive and popular citizens, and this misfortune will be regretted.

The loft is used for the storage of feed for stock, and it was while securing feed for the stock that he stepped backward into the opening.

A BIG GATHERING.

Negro Baptists Will Hold State Convention Here in April.

Editor Sun: Kindly allow me space in your paper to say on Tuesday, April 4, several hundred negro Baptists will visit our city.

The general negro Baptist State Convention will convene in the Mount Moriah Church, South Gainesville, Tuesday, the 4th, and continue until Sunday night, the 9th.

This may prove of material benefit to our city, especially the merchants.

Our pastor, Rev. H. M. Fleming, has proved himself very efficient in his church by putting in a nice pool and gallery and made his church several feet longer. We believe the Master is much pleased with the work in the church.

There will be ministers here representing about 60,000 negro Baptists of Florida, and don't be alarmed if you see about three or four hundred pass into our city. Just say its the negro Baptist General State Convention, met in Gainesville for the first time in its history, and if we negroes fail to take care of them along the grocery line we will call on our white friends to assist us, as they have in other cities. And the kind pastor, Rev. H. M. Fleming, will call on you.

In conclusion I ask our good, white Christian friends for their prayers for our success in His name.

JAMES A. JONES.

THE LEG WAS AMPUTATED.

Citizen of Waldo, Caught in Railroad Accident, Loses a Limb.

Dr. J. Harrison Hodges went Thursday to Waldo, where he was summoned to amputate a leg of J. R. Wilkerson, one of the most widely known and most prominent residents of that town.

Some years ago Mr. Wilkerson had the misfortune to be in a railroad accident, his leg being sufficiently injured that he has not since had control of that member. The injury resulted in a deformity, and amputation was finally decided upon.

Friends of Mr. Wilkerson trust that he will stand the effects of the operation, and that he will soon be out again.

A Prominent Visitor.

Among the prominent visitors to this city is F. W. Morse of Haverhill, Mass., president and one of the principal stockholders of the Gainesville Gas and Electric Power Company, who is here on business connected with the company. Mr. Morse left Boston Saturday, and states that the weather was delightful, being the warmest day of any period of the same date for thirty-three years. He came via New York, and states that the weather in that city is also fine. There was a heavy rain the day before his departure from that city, but the temperature was delightful. Mr. Morse expects to remain here for several days, as he has important matters to look after.

Incredible Brutality.

It would have been incredible brutality if Charles P. Lemberger of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for bugs and ulcers too. Only 25c at all drug stores.

FUNERAL OF MRS. ENDEL.

Large Crowd of Sorrowing Relatives and Friends Paid Her Honor.

A large number of relatives and friends of Mrs. Jacob M. Endel, who died at her home in this city Wednesday night, attended the funeral, which was held from the home on South University street at 11 o'clock Friday morning. The services were conducted by Rabbi Wittenburg of Jacksonville, and were very impressive. The interment was in the Jewish cemetery, Alachua avenue, and many followed the remains to their last resting place.

There were many floral decorations, the casket and grave being literally covered. This was evidence of the high esteem in which deceased was held by those who knew her.

Forfeited Her Bond.

Mattie Parrish, a colored girl of sixteen summers, more or less, was arrested Thursday afternoon for fighting two boys, and was required to give a bond of $5 for her appearance at the mayor's court Saturday. The mayor and officers were ready, but the defendant did not honor the court with her presence, hence the bond was forfeited.

The complaint was made by two white boys with whom the difficulty occurred, both of whom stated that the girl "cussed" a white lady and they resented it, resulting in a fight.

A Delightful Drive.

A jolly party of young folks participated in a delightful drive to Newnan's lake and other points Thursday evening. There were in the party about eight couples, which were chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Ettel. The evening was most delightfully spent, and those who participated will remember the occasion for a long time.

The Spring Poet.

A fellow who was walking along on one of the shady streets of Gainesville a few days ago, was heard to murmur:

"I would not die in Spring-time
And miss the turnip greens;
The cooing of the little frogs
And the sky-larks' early screams;
When turkeys go a gobblin'
And taters 'gin to sprout;
When the mockin' bird is warblin',
I would not then peg out."

Card of Thanks.

J. M. Endel and family and Mrs. C. Joseph desire to extend their sincere thanks and gratification for the many kindnesses shown by friends during their recent hours of bereavement. These courtesies are tokens of affection, and the family begs to assure their friends that they will ever be remembered.

Cured Consumption.

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Charwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago and since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.
